TO CHECK BANDITRY

President Has Not Changed Determination Not to Withdraw Troops Now.

Washington, May 1.—The seriousness of the Mexican situation was emphasized here tonight when Secretary Baker and Gen. Bliss declined to discuss a report made by Gen. Funston today or instructions sent as a result of this report to Gen. Scott.

"I can not discuss these matters," Secretary Baker said, "nor can I state for publication anything regarding the conference already held by Gen. Scott, or the one he is to hold, probably two."

It is now believed that the crisis in the situation may be reached within the next day or two. Although war department officials would not discuss the question of an ultimatum tonight, it is the general impression here that Mexico must by incontrovertible evidence show the United States that it can govern itself before American troops will be withdrawn.

SIMPLE

Frederick Palmer, the war correspondent, said at a dinner in New York:

"Girls all over England are making ammunition now. Lady Hamilton, Miss Nancy Cunard, Lady Diana Manners—all these lovely girls are making ammunition."

"They say a girl was talking one day at tea about her ammunition factory work."

"Oh," she said, "it's just as easy as anything to make high-explosive shell. You take a tablespoonfull of nitroglycerine, two cupfuls of gun-cotton, half a cup of trinitrotoluol, three cups of lyddite, and so on, just like the cook books you know."

Fayetteville, N. C.—"My little daughter was in poor health, delicate and so weak it made us very uneasy. Mothers of delicate children should try Vinol."—Mrs. GORDON JESSUP.

COLONEL DECLARES FOR CONSOLIDATION

Wants Delegates to Name Man on Whom Republicans and Progressives Can Unite.

New York, May 1.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, on his return here tonight from Chicago, issued a statement expressing gratification with the reception of his views on "preparedness, national duty and Americanism" in the Middle West. Col. Roosevelt declared he is not interested in the political fortunes of himself or others, and, after outlining the principles advocated in recent speeches, said: "It can not be said too often that this is a time of crisis in the nation's career. We are laying down the foundation and the controlling lines of a new era in our history. Everything I can do will be done to see that the people, west and east, realize the facts and act accordingly."

"As regards myself, I do not believe that the delegates ought to nominate me at Chicago unless they are prepared whole heartedly and without reserve to make the fight along the lines above outlined. I am fighting for certain great and vital principles. "For that reason I most earnestly hope that the delegates who go to Chicago will nominate some man on whom Republicans and Progressives can combine and who, moreover, can be heartily supported by all independent citizens and particularly by all independent Democrats who are loyal to the nationalism of Andrew Jackson and who are prepared to put the vital honor and interest of this nation above all mere partisan considerations. I hope they will choose a man upon whom all can unite, and who, if elected, we can be absolutely certain will put the principle above set forth into actual effect in the government of the country."
